

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings: Missal Page 82

Do everything calmly and peacefully.

Do as much as you can as well as you can. Strive to see God in all things without exception, and consent to His will joyously.

- Saint Francis de Sales (1567-1622), Bishop & Doctor, Feast Day January 24

Sunday Humor

A pastor and a politician died and went to Heaven. St. Peter greeted them and invited them to follow him.

He took the pastor to a small cottage and said, "This will be your new home."

He then escorted the two of them to a large mansion, and told the politician, "This will be your new home."

The surprised politician exclaimed: "How come I'm getting a mansion and the pastor is only getting a small cottage?"

"We've had a lot of pastors up here," St. Peter replied, "but you're the first politician we've had!"

Second Collection – Church in Latin America

There will be a second collection TODAY following Communion for the CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA. Many people in Latin America and the Caribbean do not have access to church programs and ministries because of a rising secular culture, rugged rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers. Your generosity enables our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ.

Please be generous in the special collection!

Sweet Surrender

We have been graced for a truly sweet surrender, if we can radically accept being radically accepted—for nothing! “Or grace would not be grace at all” (Romans 11:6)!

As my father Francis put it, when the heart is pure, love responds to Love alone and has little to do with duty, obligation, requirement, or heroic anything. It is easy to surrender when we know that nothing but Love and Mercy are on the other side.
