Saint Joseph of Cupertino

Patron Saint of Air Travelers, Astronauts and Pilots

Joseph of Cupertino is most famous for levitating at prayer. Already as a child, Joseph showed a fondness for prayer. After a short career with the Capuchins, he joined the Conventual Franciscans. Following a brief assignment caring for the friary mule, Joseph began his studies for the priesthood. Though studies were very difficult for him, Joseph gained a great deal of knowledge from prayer. He was ordained in 1628.

Joseph's tendency to levitate during prayer was sometimes a cross; some people came to see this much as they might have gone to a circus sideshow. Joseph's gift led him to be humble, patient, and obedient, even though at times he was greatly tempted and felt forsaken by God. He fasted and wore iron chains for much of his life.

The friars transferred Joseph several times for his own good and for the good of the rest of the community. He was reported to and investigated by the Inquisition; the examiners exonerated him.

Joseph was canonized in 1767. In the investigation preceding the canonization, 70 incidents of levitation are recorded.

Reflection

While levitation is an extraordinary sign of holiness, Joseph is also remembered for the ordinary signs he showed. He prayed even in times of inner darkness, and he lived out the Sermon on the Mount. He used his "unique possession" – his free will – to praise God and to serve God's creation.

The Lord Chose You

“The Lord set his love upon you and chose you”

(Deuteronomy 7:7). God is bound to us, he chose us, and this bond is forever, not so much because we are faithful, but because the Lord is faithful and endures our faithlessness, our indolence, our lapses.... We can experience and savor the tenderness of this love at every stage of life: in times of joy and of sadness, in times of good health and of frailty and of sickness.

- from Believe in Love: Inspiring Words from Pope Francis

Upcoming Readings & Gospels

9/16	Isaiah 50:5-9a James 2:14-18 Mark 8:27-35
9/23	Wisdom 2:12,17-20 James 3:16-4:3 Mark 9:30-37
9/30	Numbers 11:25-29 James 5:1-6 Mark 9:38-43,45,47-48

“Infuse your life with action. Don't wait for it to happen. Make it happen. Make your own future. Make your own hope. Make your own love. And whatever your beliefs, honor your Creator, not by passively waiting for grace to come down from upon high, but by doing what you can to make grace happen... yourself, right now, right down here on Earth.”

- Bradley Whitford
