Saint Cecilia (d.230?) Patron Saint of Musicians

Although Cecilia is one of the most famous of the Roman martyrs, the familiar stories about her are apparently not founded on authentic material. There is no trace of honor being paid her in early times. A fragmentary inscription of the late fourth century refers to a church named after her, and her feast was celebrated at least in 545.

According to legend, Cecilia was a young Christian of high rank betrothed to a Roman named Valerian. Through her influence, Valerian was converted, and was martyred along with his brother. The legend about Cecilia's death says that after being struck three times on the neck with a sword, she lived for three days, and asked the pope to convert her home into a church.

Since the time of the Renaissance she has usually been portrayed with a viola or a small organ.

Reflection

Like any good Christian, Cecilia sang in her heart, and sometimes with her voice. She has become a symbol of the Church's conviction that good music is an integral part of the liturgy, of greater value to the Church than any other art.

All time belongs to the Lord

Parish News and Happenings

Second Collection Today

There will be a second collection TODAY following Communion for CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT (CCHD). In the United States, one in seven people lives in poverty. With this collection you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those who are struggling across the country. In addition, 25 percent of funds collected remains in our diocese to fund local anti-poverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection. Envelopes have been provided at the back of the church.

National Association of Catholic Nurses

Calling all South Carolina current, retired, and student Registered Nurses and Licensed Practical Nurses: There will be an information meeting held on December 13th at 10am & 6pm at Cardinal Newman School in Columbia. Please join us as we begin to make key decisions and take the beginning steps to launch the new South Carolina chapter of the National Association of Catholic Nurses. For questions please contact Michelle Law at MLaw@Charlestandiocese.org or the Family Life Office at 803-547-5063.

Thank You, GOD for everything I've experienced here on earth. Thank You for protecting me from the moment of my birth.

And Thank You for the beauty around me everywhere, The gentle rain and glistening dew, the sunshine and the air

The joyous gift of "feeling" the soul's soft, whispering voice That speaks to me from deep within and makes my heart rejoice.

Oh, God, no words are great enough to thank you for just living, And that is why every day is a day for real THANKSGIVING.

Eating is a Moral Act

Christianity is one religion that places upon us the obligation to care for the least of our sisters and brothers here on earth if we want to share the banquet the Lord of hosts has prepared in heaven for those who believe. The image of an overflowing cornucopia reminds us that eating ought to be not only an obligation but a celebration. Such a table is a sign of hospitality. When a cook prepares everything from scratch for her guests, no one doubts the efficacy of her loving care for each ingredient. Everyone leaves the table in a jovial mood, satisfied in body and soul, having been the happy recipients of another's hospitality. We leave the table with a full stomach but, more important, our spirit feels bathed in the warmth of love.
