God afflicts us because he loves us; and it is very pleasing to him, when in our afflictions he sees us abandon ourselves to his paternal care.

United in Christ

Unidos en Cristo

Reflect, today, upon these two contrasting moments of that first Holy Week. Join, today, with the crowds as they acclaim Jesus as King. As you do, turn your eyes to the King Whom you worship. Choose to follow Him to His betrayal, His suffering and His death. Commit yourself to fidelity, especially when it is hard to do so. Do not waver in your commitment. Look at the love in the heart of Jesus' own mother and pray to her that you will have the courage she had to remain faithful to our Lord, lest the stones be forced to cry out in your place.

~~~~~

Reflexiona hoy sobre estos dos momentos contrastantes de aquella primera Semana Santa. Únete hoy a la multitud que aclama a Jesús como Rey. Al hacerlo, vuelve tu mirada hacia el Rey a quien adoras. Elige seguirlo hasta su traición, su sufrimiento y su muerte. Comprométete con la fidelidad, especialmente cuando sea difícil. No flaquees en tu compromiso. Mira el amor en el corazón de la madre de Jesús y pídele que tengas la valentía que ella tuvo para permanecer fiel a nuestro Señor, para que las piedras no se vean obligadas a clamar por ti.

In Communion with the Father

Courtesy of Minute Meditations/Franciscan Media

Have you ever been surrounded by a whirlwind of activity, perhaps in the midst of family and friends, and felt a sudden whoosh of deep contentment? This is what Pope Francis is talking about when he refers to a "joyful peace." It's the swirling flow of a dance, the soaring notes of a symphony.

Too often when we imagine peace, we think that it needs to be perfect stillness. If we're honest, we think that we might be a little bit bored with peace. When we reflect on the life of the Lord in the Gospels, we realize he was almost always in motion: walking, preaching, teaching, healing, eating, and drinking. Even when he went off to deserted places to pray, one imagines that he was in an active communion with his Father.
