

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Décimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
Readings / Lecturas: Missal Page 32 / 33

We are formed by environment and grace, by politics and prayer, by church and conscience. All God's creatures conspire to teach us as well. We stumble. We stutter. We rise. We are lifted.

When Adam stayed out very late for a few nights, Eve became upset. "You're running around with other women," she charged. "Don't be ridiculous," Adam responded. "You're the only woman on earth."

The quarrel continued until Adam fell asleep, only to be awakened by someone poking him in the chest. It was Eve.

"What are you doing?" Adam demanded.

"Counting your ribs."

United in Christ

Unidos en Cristo

Stewardship of treasure is based on giving a percentage of our income. If we have little income, we will give little. If we have greater income, we will give more. Whether we are poor or rich, we can each give a percentage of our income to church and other charities.

~~~~~

Adán y Eva fueron desterrados del jardín por su desobediencia. Pero Jesús dice en el evangelio de hoy que cuando somos obedientes a la voluntad de Dios – cuando usamos nuestros dones para servirnos unos a otros – nos convertimos en parte de Su familia. “Quien hace la voluntad de Dios es hermano y hermana madre mía”.

The Divine Artist Courtesy of Minute Meditations/Franciscan Media

If someone wants to praise an artist, he does so by admiring his art. Leonardo da Vinci would not be upset with people who admire the gaze of his Mona Lisa, and Michelangelo would not be angry with people who admire his “Last Judgment” scene in the Sistine Chapel. No artist would rush into a museum and say, “Stop looking at my works of art! Stop talking about my paintings! You should give all your attention to me!” Rather, the artist is praised when his masterpieces are recognized and celebrated.

In a similar way, God is a divine artist, and his spiritual masterpieces are the saints. The saints are men and women who have been completely transformed by God’s saving grace. We give God great praise when we thank him for the work of salvation he has accomplished in their lives.
