*Let us trust in Him who has placed this burden upon us.
 What we ourselves cannot bear let us bear with the help of Christ.
 For He is all-powerful, and He tells us: 'My yoke is easy, and my burden light.'*
 - St. Boniface of Mainz (675-754), Bishop, Martyr, Feast Day June 5

United in Christ

Unidos en Cristo

It is important that we budget our hours as we budget our income so we are able to give our time to be involved in church and community activities.

~*~*~*~*~

La carta pastoral de los obispos sobre la Administración de Nuestro Tiempo, Talento y Tesoro como Bienes de Dios pregunta: “¿Y que traen los cristianos a la celebración eucarística para unirnos a la ofrenda de Jesús?” La respuesta es: “Sus vidas como discípulos cristianos; sus vocaciones personales y la administración de los bienes de Dios que han ejercitado en lo que a ellos se refiere a sus contribuciones individuales para la gran obra de restaurar todas las cosas en Cristo.”

St. Francis and the Cross Courtesy of Minute Meditations/Franciscan Media

Francis always mentioned humility in the same breath with poverty. In a sense, they are the same: personally doing without. This is a fact, because all that we have is from God. This is an ideal, because we want to be without everything but God. Some of the most striking things Francis said concern humility: “A man is what he is in the sight of God and nothing more.” “The better a man really is, the worse he feels himself to be.” The more we appreciate God's gifts and unending generosity, the more we become conscious of refusing to admit this and spoiling God's precious gifts.

As with St. Paul, the only thing Francis would take pride in was the “cross of Christ.”
